

Visa Application for Japan Now Available Online

As for now, the online application is available only for a short-term stay visa with a tourism purpose (single-entry) and in the specific countries/region.

First, access the JAPAN eVISA website. Create an account.

Once registered, you will be able to apply for a visa.
<https://www.evisa.mofa.go.jp/index>

Introduction video

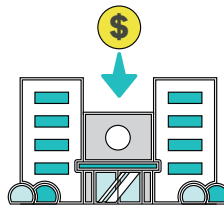

Watch the introduction video. You can learn how to apply for a visa online and display "Visa issuance notice".

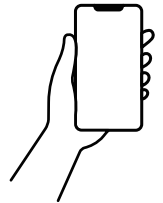

Apply online

Pay fee

Display

How to display "Visa issuance notice" on your device at the airport.
There are 2 ways to display.

Log in the JAPAN eVISA website with your account.

Scan the QR-code on "Visa issuance notice".

* Screen shots and printouts are not valid.

① Click "Visa application list"

② Check relevant person

③ Click "Visa issuance notice" (to display)

① Input information, and click "Display"

② Input information, and click "Display"

① Scan the QR-code

Check the website of Japanese overseas establishment in your jurisdiction in advance.

Websites of Japanese Embassies and Consulates

外務省

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan